The Daily Courant.

Monday, June 26 1704.

From the Amfterdam Courant, dated June 20.

Naples, May 27. Ount Vesuvio has within a few days vomited Flames and caft up Stones, in great Quantity and with a most frightful Noise; which makes us dread an Earthquake, as has formerly happen'd upon such violent Eruptions. The Privateers of Segna are very troublesome in the Adriatick and have lately taken several Prizes. Father Palombo of the Order of St. Francis, having formerly obtain'd of Pope Innocent the 12th the Relicks of St. Crescentius a Martyr, and deposited them in a Church dedicated to that Saint in the District of Giuliano, 'tis now given out that several Miracles have been perform'd in those parts by that Saint, and that he has of late appear'd frequently to feveral Persons in the Habit of a Soldier. They write from Malta, that a Squadron of Gallies commanded by the Signior Ta-vora a Portugueze is ready to fet Sail from thence towards Sicily and Sardignia.

From the Rotterdam Gazette June 23. Rome, May 31. The 25th a great Procession was made as is usual Annually on that day, by the German Nation; and 12 Cardinals whom the Emperor's Ambaffador had invited had affifted at it, who were receiv's with a Complement at the Door of the Church dell' Anima by Monsieur Causitz Auditor of the Rota. The same Day Cardinal Janson with the Prelates and Nobility that are in the Interest of the 2 Crowns made a like Procession, after which his Eminency gave a mag acent Treat to the Ambassador of Spain and 50 other Persons of Quality. The 26th the Pope remov'd from the Vatican to the Palace of Monte Cavallo, where he will pass the rest of the Summer. The Pope's Galleys which are at Civita Vecchia, are order'd to put out of that Port and cruise upon our Coast; and other Precautions are taken for securing the Maritine Places, by Order of the Court, upon advice that a Fleet of English and Dutch Men of War is come into these Seas. The Solders that are to serve on board the said Galleys will march from hence to Civita Vecchia two Days hence. The Viceroy's of Naples and Sicily. and the Ambassador of Spain at this Court, are continued in those Employments for 3 Years longer. Some Frinch Frigates are arriv'd at Ancona, to joyn the Galleys of Naples lately put into that Port, in Order to cruise together on the Privateers of of Segna which infest the Adriatick. The Pope has sent new Orders to his Nuncio in Poland to spare no Pains to mediate a Reconciliation between the King and those who have confederated against him, and to follow his Majesty every where whatever Expence it engages him in, But Pasquin has taken the Liberty to say, that this is but a Copy of his Holynes's Countenance; and that he has too great a Love for France, to lay the Interest of King Augustus II. so much to Heart. The 28th at Night a Courier was dispatch'd to the Cardinal Legate at Ferrara, with Orders ('tis faid ) to warn the Troops of the Empeoror and of the King ance that are in that Province, to it within 8 Days on pain of Excommunication.

Venice, June 6. Four Companies of Foot are arriv'd here from Verona and Legnano, who are ro embark on some Ships that are getting ready for the Levant; likewise 120 Men who stand condemn'd to the Galleys, are brought hither from feveral Towns of the Terra firma, to be put into some Galleys which our Regents have order'd to be fitted out with all Expedition. Both the Imperial and French Troops had promis'd to retire out of the Ferrareze, and had in part perform'd that Promise; but some Days ago the French came back agen into that Province with a greater Number than before, and taking Post in the Town of Stellata fell to work to fortise it; the Imperialists being inform'd of it return'd likewise to Figarolo on the hither fide of the Po, and having planted 10 Pieces of Cannon against Stellata, batter'd it so furiously that they forc'd the French to abandon it. The Imperialists are fortifying themselves in several Places of the said Province.

From the Leiden Gazette June 12. Zurich June 8. Our Council of 200 having taken into Confideration the Proposals made to the Proteftant Cantons by Monfieur de la Mellarede, Envoy Exxtraordinary of the Duke of Savoy, for raising a cer-tain Number of Men to take possession of Savoy, the Members of the said Council were divided in their Opinions; but the Plurality of Voices determin'd, that those Proposals should be rejected, that the King of France's Offer of a Neutrality for the 3 Provinces of the Chablais, the Faussigni, and the Territory of Geneva, together with Montmellian, was sufficient, and that a Treaty for fixing the said Neutrality should be Negociated with the Minister of his most Christian and Minister of his most Christia ftian Majesty, the rather, because there was Ground to apprehend that if they should agree to the raising of the Men desir'd by the Minister of Savoy, His said Majesty would revoke his Word given for the Neu-trality of the Forrest Towns, of those structe on the Lake of Constance, of the Frickdal, and of a Tract of Country of a League broad on the Frontiers of Switzerland between the Lake of Constance and the Rhine; as the Marquels de Puisieux Ambassador of France had intimated in his last Letter to our Regents. This Resolution was communicated to Monsieur de la Mellarede; who answer'd that he could not joyn with them in suchla Negociation with France for the Neutrality of part of Savoy, as they propos'd, his Powers relating to any Negociation at all, being expir'd; But that he would acquaint his Royal Highness his Mafter with the Resolution the Council had taken, and wait his Instructions thereupon. Our Deputies return'd to Baden, and reported the Resolution of our Regents to the Deputies of the other Cantons that remain'd there after the breaking up of the last Diet, and laid before them the Reasons that induc'd their Principals to take the faid Resolution of accepting the King of France's Offer, conceiving it to be an Expedient that ought to be approv'd by all Parties. This Resolution of our Regents, as reported by our Deputies, being taken into Confideration by those Deputies of other Cantons that tarried at Baden, after great Debates upon it, (in which the Deputies of which the Helvetick Body will be expos'd after they have lost the Barrier of Savoy, ) it was concluded by the Majority to refer this Matter to the next general Diet which is to be held on Midsummer Day, and in the mean time to report it to their respective Principals. After which all the said Deputies left Baden and return'd home. Yesterday Monsieur Valkenier Envoy extraordinary from their high Mightinesses the States General, fet out from Scafnuysen to return to Holland; Collonel Wiederholt, who commands in Dutlingen, came with a Party of Granadiers to the Frontier of Switzerland, and from thence conducted him to Dutlingen.
